

Tiantai Law Firm Held a Post on the List of the “Top 30 Largest Law Firms in China” in 2023 by ALB

2023-11-20

Recently, Asian Legal Business (ALB), a well-known legal media, announced the list of “Top 30 Largest Law Firms in China” in 2023; Beijing Tiantai Law Firm is honored on the list again.

Established in 1994, Tiantai Law Firm is one of the earliest established large-scale law firms in China. Today, it has become a well-known and influential law firm, and has been on the list of the “Top 30 Largest Law Firms in China” by ALB for many consecutive years. In the past one year, more than 100 partners joined Tiantai Law Firm, and the number of lawyers increased by more than 250, with the total number exceeding 1,500, once again making new achievements on the road of scaling up.

Since its establishment, Tiantai Law Firm has always placed professional expertise at the core of its development, and this idea is fully reflected in our daily operation. Mr. ZHANG He, Director of the Management Committee of Tiantai Law Firm, was interviewed by Asian Legal Business and said, “All the lawyers of Tiantai have been working in the front line of business and have rich practical experience. In daily work, Tiantai lawyers attach great importance to the professionalism, insists on internal training and encourages external exchanges, and also focus on training young lawyers, so as to provide diversified legal services for clients through teamwork.”

In the context of rapid iteration in economy, society, science and technology, Tiantai Law Firm has maintained the spirit of pragmatism and innovation in the course of development. “We are constantly expanding our practice fields and developing legal service products.

With the increasing demand for legal services in the industry of science and technology, we also adjust our strategic direction and increasing our efforts in these these fields.” Mr. Zhang said.

After years of professional development, Tiantai Law Firm has successfully gained the capability to serve the industry with 16 practice areas, including capital market, environmental resources and government administration based on rule of law, life science and healthcare, international business, private equity and venture capital, bankruptcy reorganization and liquidation, information technology, media and entertainment, and so on. As of November 2023, Tiantai Law Firm has set up 28 offices in mainland China, forming a nationwide legal service network.

Talent is a powerful force that can never be ignored. “Talent is the source power of the law firm’s sustainable development, and we will also continue to make efforts in talent training in the future. Through the young lawyer projects like the ‘lawyer pool’ system, we will improve the training mechanism to help young lawyers quickly accumulate practical experience.” Mr. Zhang said.

来源:

作者:
