

Four Lawyers from Beijing Tiantai Law Firm Are Elected Leading Group Members of the Professional Committees under the All China Lawyers Association

2019-08-09

Recently, the All China Lawyers Association announced its professional committees that have been established and the list of leading group members of each professional committee. A total of 4 lawyers from Beijing Tiantai Law Firm were enrolled. Jingbing GAO, Director of Tiantai Management Committee, was elected as deputy director and secretary-general of the Legal Advisory Professional Committee; Tiantai Senior Partner Xiang MA was elected as deputy director of the Intellectual Property Professional Committee; Tiantai Senior Partner Saijun ZHOU was elected as director of the Environmental, Resource and Energy Law Professional Committee; and Tiantai Senior Partner Bin ZHANG was elected as secretary-general of the Environmental, Resource and Energy Law Professional Committee.

The 4 lawyers successfully elected as leading group members of professional committees under the All China Lawyers Association have completed all major difficult cases with their years of practice experience and efficient teamwork, and are committed to providing practical solutions for customers based on their needs.

来源:

作者:
